weekend in style

BY GEOFF BELCHER

Hancock County celebrated the Independence Day weekend with multiple events, including what volunteers said was a huge turn-out for the 40th annual Our Lady of the Gulf Crab Fest, plus plenty of waterfront activities and fireworks.

"It's been hot, but we've had a great crowd," event volunteer Jerry West said Friday. "It's been hot, but everybody's coming out to enjoy the fest."

Waveland and Bay discuss permit reciprocity for low-speed vehicle registration

Last week, during the regular Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen meeting, the city discussed an interlocal agreement between the city of Bay St. Louis and Waveland for permit reciprocity for low-speed vehicle registration.

Waveland Mayor Jay Trapani said the city already honors Bay St. Louis' decals that come into Waveland.

He added that, "I was anxious to see how they (Bay St. Louis) were going to handle it before we moved any further on this."

The agreement was also on the city of Bay St. Louis' agenda for discussion that same evening, Trapani said.

Ward 1 Alderman Rhonda Aime-Gamble said she spoke to Bay Police Chief Toby Schwartz, Bay Assistant Police Chief Alvin Kingston, Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre and Bay city attorney Heather Smith about an interlocal agreement.

"Everybody was in favor of this," she said. "They all think it's the best thing for both cities. I know that that's their intention to follow through. And I don't think that we need to wait to see what they're going to do for us to move forward with what we know is right."

Senior citizens “Build a Bear” with local children

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last week, children from the STARS East summer camp collaborated with senior citizens at the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center to “build a bear.”

Hancock County Human Resource Agency Executive Director Lora Mederos said the children in the program are ages 5 to 12. The camp is held at East Hancock Elementary.

During the school year, there is also an after care program, she added, at North and West Hancock elementaries.

Mederos said while the children do “build a bear” every summer, this is the first time they’ve partnered with the senior center for the event.

“The program director, Ms. Gwen, wanted to do an activity with the seniors, because she actually used to be an activity director in a nursing home facility,” Mederos said. “She wanted to do service projects this summer so she wanted to do this and she wanted to do a service with the Hancock Animal Shelter, so they’re doing that later in the month.”

Mederos said the senior citizens have been taking classes such as matter of balance and an aging mastery class.

“The children have been making them little bags of encouragement that we put the seniors’ snacks in,” Mederos said. “Then the seniors turned around and made this a big poster with the bags.”

Children were paired with seniors and each picked out an animal to stuff.

Hancock County Senior Citizens director Arlene Johnson said this event provided a positive benefit to the seniors.

“It’s like grandchildren and children,” she said. “They’re interacting, they’re stuffing stuffed animals. The seniors are helping the children, the children are helping the seniors and it’s a finished project. They both enjoy it. The children enjoy working with the seniors and it’s an experience for the seniors, because most of them don’t have any little grandchildren or great-grandchildren around to help them.”

After some of the children stuffed animals, they also colored pictures and wrote thank you cards to the seniors.

dren, it’s good for us and it makes my seniors smile. It makes them happy and it’s good when you make an elderly person happy with something so simple.”

Bay adopts ‘BSL2045’ plan

BY GEOFF BELCHER
PUBLISHER

The Bay St. Louis City Council last week approved a resolution adopting the ambitious Bay St. Louis 2045 Comprehensive Plan.

Bob Barber of Orion Planning and Design addressed the council about the plan at its regularly scheduled meeting last week and brought councilmen up to date on the process.

Orion is the same company the city of Diamondhead contracted with in 2020 to create its “Envision Diamondhead 2040” 20-year plan.

Orion first submitted its proposal to the city of Bay St. Louis in October 2022 and was one of three companies bidding for the project. The total cost is projected at $165,000.

City officials and Orion kicked off the “BSL 2045” comprehensive planning process in March 2023 with a public forum, followed up by a two-month period where people responded to a survey at bsl2045.

com about how they wanted the city to grow. Orion got about 1,400 responses to the survey.

After that, Orion’s team continued the planning process with Mayor Mike Favre and the city council; city employees; and a 20-member citizens advisory group that included Tad Black, Leanne Murray, John Baxter, Anita Warner, Michelle Beauregard, Linda Kay Davis, Regan

SPECIAL TO THE ECHO

The Hancock Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce Hancock County’s Top 10 Outstanding Citizens for 2024! This group of individuals come from all corners of the county and have made significant contributions to its growth, development and quality of life.

JOHN BRDECKA

John moved to Hancock County in the fall of 2021 from the Chicagoland area after accepting the position of Executive Director for the Hancock County Library System. KELLY CANNON Kelly Cannon, originally from Lake Charles, Louisiana, began his journey to Hancock County in 1989 when he became a broker for State Farm Insurance Company in Waveland.

Kelly describes moving his family to Waveland, as “the single best decision” of his life, second only to marrying his wife, Julie. The couple quickly integrated into the community, forging lasting friendships through the Waveland Civic Association and the Jaycees. Over the years, Kelly has contributed to the community by coaching youth baseball and soccer and supporting various local initiatives such as CASA. His dedication and service were recognized when he served as the Grand Marshal for the 2023 Waveland Civic Association St. Patrick’s Day Parade.

MICHAEL CASANO

Longtime Diamondhead resident and attorney Michael Casano has been a dedicated force for good in the community, and this year he elevated his impact even further. Following the loss of his beloved yellow lab, Sadie, Michael channeled his grief into launching the inaugural Sadiefest, an event featuring an auction and live music to benefit Friends of the Hancock County Animal Shelter. Over $13,000 was raised for the shelter and is now set to become an annual tradition. Michael’s law firm, established in 2006, now has offices in Diamondhead and Gulfport. He is also a partner in Aloha Wine & Spirits, another successful local business. Beyond his professional endeavors, Michael actively supports community causes such as CASA and has offered pro-bono services to law enforcement personnel. His commitment to service is further highlighted by his decade-long tenure as a Hancock County Sheriff’s Deputy.

Known for her inclusive nature and ability to inspire others, Melanie ensures that everyone feels welcomed and valued in the community.

WESLEY LABAT

The community is thankful for Wesley Labat who works always behind the scenes bringing light to others in need. If there is an event that is important to a member of the community, Wesley and the Labat family will be there to support the community to make the magic happen and keep the ball rolling. And, they have a legacy that spans generations in Hancock County. Wesley has a strong work ethic, always putting family and friends first, never seeking recognition or awards. His kind words and welcoming smile always bring joy and comfort to others. Conservation Corner:
July is National Park and Recreation Month

Designated in 1985 as National Park and Recreation Month by the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA), the month of July is ideal for small groups and families to rediscover their local parks and visit new ones. Encouraging outdoor physical activity and actively promoting parks and recreation in communities across the country, the NRPA actively supports and promotes creative celebrations through their magazine Parks & Recreation, and encourages communities and townships to submit their own celebration and activity information.

GUEST COLUMN
BY JAMES L. CUMMINS

For nearly 40 years, we have celebrated Park and Recreation Month in July to promote building strong, vibrant and resilient communities through the power of parks and recreation. This month is dedicated to recognizing and celebrating the more than 160,000 full-time park and recreation professionals—along with hundreds of thousands of part-time and seasonal workers and volunteers—who maintain our country’s local, state and community parks.

This year’s theme — “Where You Belong” — celebrates the many ways park and recreation professionals across the country foster a sense of belonging in their community by providing welcoming and inclusive programs, essential services for all ages and abilities, and safe, accessible spaces to build meaningful connections.

The object of the NRPA and National Park and Recreation Month isn’t just to encourage outdoor recreational activity and increase park visitation, but also to recognize and salute those who work in the parks system to make our park experience enjoyable and unforgettable. The beauty of a park can reside within our hearts and minds long after we have left, and children and adults alike will certainly enjoy the tranquility and peace of such natural serenity. We should consider the care and effort that goes into maintaining our parks by the vast number of park employees who

Hancock History: Iberville

The founder of the Colony of Louisiana in 1699 was a French soldier, explorer, and trader named Iberville. His full name was Sieur d’Iberville or Pierre Le Moyne d’Iberville (1661-1706). He came from a noble family in Canada and had a distinguished career before 1698, but this article will focus on his achievements in regard to the founding of the Colony of Louisiana in North America. His brother, Bienville, would make a significant contribution to this history as the first Governor of Louisiana.

The French explorer, LaSalle, was the first European to travel down the Mississippi River from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico in 1682. He claimed all the territory in the Mississippi River Valley for France and named the region Louisiana after the King of France, Louis IVX. Subsequently, Iberville sailed to France to enlist royal backing for an expedition to locate the mouth of the Mississippi River and establish a colony there. The grand plan was to have French control of Canada, the Gulf Coast, and the entire Mississippi River Valley, which would contain the British Colonies on the Atlantic seacoast.

The French king supported this mission in October 1699 by supplying four ships. The Minister of Naval Affairs, Lord Pontchartrain, ordered Iberville to locate the mouth of the Mississippi River and establish a fort, and later a city, that would control traffic on the river and block its usage by other countries such as Spain and England.

Iberville and his younger brother, Bienville (1680-1767), found the mouth of the Mississippi River which had a delta configuration, in March of 1699. They ascended the Mississippi River for about one hundred miles. Bienville left the ship and located the local Indian tribe, the Mougulasha. These Indians remembered LaSalle and had a letter from Henry Tonti who had accompanied LaSalle that was fourteen years old. This settled once and for all that they had ascended the same Mississippi River described by LaSalle.

Iberville and Bienville separated and Iberville returned to the Ocean Springs site that was deemed more suitable for a temporary fort for the colonists. Meanwhile, Bienville

mandated electric vehicles

I must admit that a negative tome about Electric Vehicles (EV’s) coming from one who does not believe man is a major factor causing global warming is open to question. (In fairness, if one wants to buy an EV, then by all means do so. Just be aware of their limitations and problems.) On the other hand, coming from an 84-year-old who has worked on vehicles since the mid-1950’s, there is some semblance of credibility. Side note: While I love Crusin’ the Coast each fall, there is always a little sadness in realizing that I am older than most of the cars participating! And we call these cars “Classics”! (I wonder if I can get my wife to call me a Classic?! Actually, she already does but it is usually followed by a word Editor Goeff won’t let me include here.)

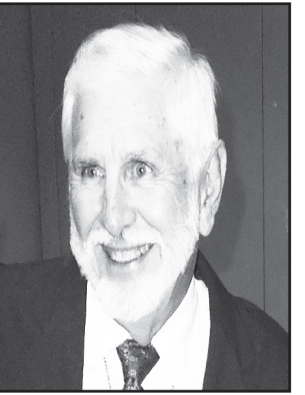

Anyway, during a recent discussion with my sister-in-law Kathy, she said that under no circumstances should I purchase an Electric Vehicle (EV). Miss Kathy has worked in both automotive sales and maintenance over much of her life. She noted that her dealership had had an EV on the lot for an extended period and could not sell it. She further allowed that EV’s had major problems, both with the car’s themselves and with the lack of an infrastructure to support them.

There is much evidence of problems with EV’s. Per a 1/12/24 Reuters Article, Hertz Car Rental just replaced 20,000 EV’s due to their high cost and customers declining to rent them. According to another Reuters Report, Tesla is laying off more than 10% of its global workforce as it “grapples with falling EV sales.....”. For the 1st Quarter of this year, Ford’s EV operations posted a negative 102% profit margin, even with the Government’s massive subsidies. Ford says it doesn’t expect EV operations to get in the black until 2026. Ford said “Dealers have noted that enthusiasm for EV’s has simply stalled.” It already had thousands of unsold EV’s sitting on lots. The German newspaper “Norwest-Zeitung reports VW is reducing the production of EVs due to demand being 30% below expectations. Detroit Free Press notes that Berkshire Hathaway (Warren Buffet) dumped nearly one half its stake in GM due to slow EV launches. According to Reuter’s, unsold EV’s are at the highest levels in 5 years. Some unsold EV’s average over 100 days on lots.

The whole discussion came about because the Biden Administration recently issued an edict to the car makers forcing them to produce roughly 70% battery-powered vehicles by 2032. This means that in about 7 years from now, most new vehicle sales, over 70%, will have to be battery powered Electric Vehicles (EV’s). For comparison, EV’s made up only about 8% of new car sales last year. Per the Dept. of Energy, 37% of all EV’s are registered in California. Also, 35% of EV buyers return to gasoline powered cars within two years. For interest, less than 1% of EV sales occur in Mississippi, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Alabama, Montana and Idaho. day, 4/7/24 piece by Ingrid Jacques: “IF YOU LIKE YOUR CAR, GOOD LUCK KEEPING IT. BIDEN’S EV MANDATE DRIVES CHANGE PEOPLE DON’T WANT.”)

Based on my 84-year background watching the evolution of automobiles, I do not think the Government’s major change edict has any chance of becoming reality for one major reason. In the end, it is the desires of car purchasers that reflects the type of automobiles that will be on the road, NOT the desires of government bureaucrats. If you look at the vehicle changes over the past 70 years, almost all came about because they were for the most part, improvements that the consumer wanted, not because some government person dictated them. For example, few cars had air conditioning in 1945. By 1960, few did not have AC. Though adding $400 to $600 to a vehicle’s cost, car buyers were willing to pay. Car tires in the ‘50’s rarely lasted over 12,000 miles. Today’s tires last into the 60,000-to-80,000-mile range. Though costing six to ten times as much, car buyers are willing to pay the higher costs to get safer and longer lasting tires. Cars in the 40’s and 50’s had inefficient carburation leading to gas milage in the 6 to 12 miles per gallon range. But boy, they could really get up and go!! With gasoline prices in the $0.20/gallon range, this is what the buyer wanted. In the mid-60’s, the Arab nations nationalized (actually stole) the Mid-Eastern oil fields and drove the price of oil from about $2/barrel to over $10/barrel. As gas prices went up, the car buyer leaned toward better gasoline milage This led to sophisticated carburation like fuel injection systems used today. While only the 2,000 lb. Volkswagen could get in the 20MPG range in the ‘50’s and ‘60’s, now even luxury cars weighing over 5,000 lbs. can get in the 20 to 30 MPG

gasoline consumption range

And so, it is my opinion that the car builders and buyers will respond to future changing conditions without major problems caused by mandates from the government. Electric vehicles (EV’s) are quite capable of becoming the buyer’s choice as driving conditions dictate. To do so, they must be practical and usable within the environment they must operate.

This brings us to the problems caused by government mandated electric vehicles (EV’s). From my perspective, today’s EV’s have not had time to evolve sufficiently. They suffer from a limited range, high costs, poor support infrastructure and multiple mechanical problems.

EV Range Problems – Car & Driver says EV’s get about 220 miles on a full charge. This is far less than IC vehicles get on a tank of gasoline. However, this is for new batteries and is also greatly impacted by the speed driven. As batteries age, the distance decreases. As Adrienne Woodlang, spokesperson for AARP said in a statement recently, “Range anxiety remains a top reason consumer are hesitant to switch from gasoline-powered vehicles to EV’s.” Also, temperatures in the 20”s reduce milage about 30%. Air conditioners reduce milage about 50% in summer.” This, along with the absence of electricity after hurricanes and storms, present major problems for we on the Gulf Coast who would need to use their EV after a storm. Of course, battery packs tend to “explode” when flooded so this is an additional potential problem in the aftermath of a hurricane.

EV Costs – EV new costs are not on parity with IC vehicles. As reported by a “Motley Fool” 11/22 Report, even with government subsidies of $7,500/vehicle, EV’s average cost new is over $60,000 vs a new IC vehicle cost of $48,700. A 1/23 Washington Examiner article notes that these high costs are a major barrier to EV expansion. And, this does not include costs for home charging stations and, where needed, home upgraded wiring. The California Energy Commission Report lists home EV Charging equipment costs range from $1,500-$20,000 for a slow (overnight) minimum installation EV home charging system to as much as $200,000 for high voltage fast (less than an hour) charging system. Of course, this is over and above the cost for a new EV itself.

EV repair costs are high. Per Consumer Reports, EV’s suffer 79% more maintenance problems than gas powered cars. Regarding EV repair costs, a battery pack costs in the $8,000 to $20,000 range to replace or, in most cases, more than replacing an Internal Combustion (gasoline) engine. Note: high charging rates cause battery packs to be replaced every 4 to 6 years. Also, even relatively minor accidents can be expensive. The New York Times reported a Rivian owner spent $42,000 or over a half the cost of a new EV vehicle on a relatively minor fender-bender recently. In 2023, New York city reported six deaths and 142 injuries related to poor charging practices, mismatched equipment and over charging, using damaged or “refurbished” batteries. Speaking of New York city, they recently scrapped seven electric trucks costing $523,000 each because “they were simply not powerful enough.”

EV Insurance costs are high. As Forbes, in a Jan. 2023 article notes, EV insurance is higher than IC vehicles due to higher initial costs, expensive EV parts, high battery costs, and repair shops charging more due to specialized training required to fix EV’s.

EV Support Infrastructure simply is not yet in place. The Boston Consulting Group estimates between $400 billion and $1 Trillion will be required to upgrade the US electric infrastructure for handling a mostly EV American car fleet. Consider, an all-EV infrastructure will need to replace roughly a million gasoline pumps located at some 145,000 filling stations nationwide. The Biden Administration included $7.5 billion in government funding for charging stations but have gotten none installed to date. Further, virtually the entire countries’ electrical distribution system will have to be upgraded and expanded. Strangely, environmentalists are already actively opposing expansion of the required electrical grid. (HMMM – Lets see, the Greens want us to use less hydrocarbons but oppose expanding the electrical network required for us to use less hydrocarbons!) DUH!!! This paradox continues as a huge number of large mining operations will be required to secure the minerals necessary for making batteries for over 100,000,000+ EV’s. The problem here is that even Administrators in the Biden Administration are currently stopping new mining operations!

Finally, I have not even touched on the complete failure of eighteen wheel type EV trucks to compete with gasoline powered eighteen wheelers. In any case, I do believe, over time, EV’s will become a viable alternative to our transportation needs. As a 12/23 Politico article notes: “The wealthier early adopters now have the EV’s they want while more modest buyers continue to tiptoe into the market.” In my opinion, we will know when our President and most members of Congress begin to use EV’s rather than the gasoline powered vehicles they now use. Meanwhile, the Administration and government poo-bahs will continue to push EV’s because they get $Millions in campaign funding from..... the people who make money from EV’s! As a U. of California Energy Institute notes, there is a “strong correlation between political ideology and the push to adopt EV’s. No Kid-

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AD VALOREM TAX EFFORT

Hancock County School District During the 2024 Regular Session, the Mississippi Legislature changed the funding formula from the Mississippi Adequate Education Program to the Mississippi Student Funding Formula that results in an increase of the local contribution to the new funding formula for the Hancock County School District of $1,865,131. The Hancock County School District's proposed budget will include an increase that is estimated to result in no more than a 4.07 mill increase for operating purposes. The Hancock County School District is not requesting an increase based on a percentage of the tax base or any additional new property and is solely requesting the amount that represents the increase required for the new state funding formula.

Tuesday’s event.

“This is a very, very, very exciting day for the city of Waveland and all of Hancock County,” he said. “We have been working on this deal for over a year now and today we’re going to break ground on it.”

Trapani said the new project involved a joint-effort with Waveland, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission.

“This is going to jumpstart this western end of Highway 90,” Trapani said. “Between Nicholson Avenue and Highway 603 and the city line here, we have some properties that need a little help and this is going to jumpstart this area. This $16 million project on these four acres of land will just revitalize this whole area. It’s going to be the cornerstone of Highway 90 and the reason I say it’s going to jump start is we’re going to have 110 rooms here. Last week, a new owner purchased the apartments down here with 260 units. So, in a year-and-a-half, we’re going to have 300 people just in this two-block area that we’ve never had before. So you’re going to start seeing restaurants like the one across the street popping up and start seeing more businesses at this end. When I took office, everybody said that you need to do something about the entrance into Hancock County from the west. We’re working on that and our building department is working on some code violations, we’re trying to clean up the existing businesses, so I think you’re going to see a big change in Waveland in the next 18 months to two years.”

HCPHC executive director Blaine LaFontaine said meetings with Nikhil Ajmera of Waveland Hospitality LLC began in October 2022.

“We quickly had developed a conversation about a vision,” LaFontaine said. “He thought Hancock County was a place that was growing, was prime for investment and we began working with him and his team on their feasibility looking at sites, working with our local realtors to identify those opportunities. But, at the end of the day, we just want to say we appreciate your patience, your persistence and your investment in Hancock County that we believe is going to be a vital foundation we continue to grow and hopefully grow these key corridors with our partnerships with the Chamber, the city of Waveland, Hancock County Board of Supervisors. It’s not just about the retail sectors, it’s also about having hotels that accommodate the continued investment in tourism that’s growing on the coast, but also about our military installations, our private corporations that really depend on having these types of bedrooms in our community.”

Construction of the new hotel is expected to last for 18 to 24 months.

enville, as lieutenant to Governor Sauvolle de la Villantry at Ocean Springs. However, Soon thereafter Sauvolle died in August 1701, which made Bienville Governor. Iberville sailed back to France to report to King Louis IVX the success of his mission.

Iberville returned to Louisiana in 1701 with orders from the Crown to abandon Ocean Springs and establish a colony in Mobile Bay. In 1702, the French built Fort Louis twenty-seven miles north of present-day Mobile. After his adventures in Louisiana, Iberville commanded a squadron of twelve vessels that engaged the British in the War of Spanish Succession. While planning an expedition against Charles Town, Carolina, Iberville died of yellow fever in Havana, Cuba in 1706, where he is buried.

Iberville is remembered as a great soldier and was successful against the British in the Hudson Bay region in Canada before he was tasked to find the mouth of the Mississippi River. His seaman skills were unmatched in that era and he established the Colony of Louisiana on the Gulf Coast. His younger brother, Bienville, would be remembered as the man who made the strategic decision to place the City of New Orleans as the capital of Louisiana in 1723 on the Mississippi River.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AD VALOREM TAX EFFORT BAY ST. LOUIS-WAVELAND SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District will hold a public hearing on its proposed school district budget for fiscal year 2025 on July 24, 2024 at 5:30pm at the Superintendent Office, 200 North Second Street, Bay St. Louis, MS. At this meeting, a proposed ad valorem tax effort will be considered.

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $22,067,927.00. Of that amount, 47.95 percent or $10,580,571.00 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $23,511,558.00. Of that amount, 50.67 percent or $11,914,303.00 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

For the next fiscal year, the proposed increase in ad valorem tax effort by Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District may result in an increase in the ad valorem tax millage rate. Ad valorem taxes are paid on homes, automobile tags, business fixtures and equipment, and rental real property.

Any citizen of Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed ad valorem tax effort, and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken.

Bible Belt

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. Gerald Richardson, D. MIN.

In Coastal Mississippi we are part of what is known as “The Bible Belt”. I do not recall ever seeing a precise and satisfactory definition of that term, but, in the words of a former Supreme Court Justice of the United States, “I know it when I see it”. The bible belt is a loosely defined geographic region which includes most of the southern United States. It is an area which enshrines understandings of religion, guns, hunting, fishing, football, and several other cherished traditions. This observation is not intended as a “put-down”. Most of us who have lived in the region for a majority of our lives have participated in, and still value, some of these pursuits. Anchoring most of this is the understanding of The Holy Bible as the only appropriate way in which to conduct daily life. This is the fabric of the world from which I come. I cannot remember a time when I did not attend church with my family, read the bible regularly, and have an awareness of religious claims upon my life. I am thankful for this heritage, even as I am aware of its limitations in terms of engaging with a larger world. The Holy Bible is clearly a source of important influence and inspiration in the south, as well as in many other places throughout the world. As we consider this significant impact, it is crucial to recognize what it is, what it is not, and the way in which it should be properly handled. The bible is not a history book. It does acknowledge some historical events. It often incorporates such events into its texts. However, it is not history in the traditional academic sense of that discipline. The bible is not a rule book. It does contain guidance for the living of our lives. This guidance is often wise and helpful. It is not, however, a simple reference work in which one can look up the rule and receive the answer to complicated ethical or relational questions. Sadly, many people attempt to read and utilize the bible for history and/or rules. This often leads to conflicts with well-known and established scientific, psychological, historical, or other realities. This may cause hostility to spiritual wisdom on the part of the secular population, as well as fear and distrust from those whose spirituality is crucial to their lives. There is a way for these values to meet. They include: *A proper interpretation of scripture. Historical context is important. When was the text written? What was going on in the world at the time? How did it impact the writer? Given this knowledge, how might it influence our current thinking? *An awareness of the use of original language. This does not require that one must read Hebrew or Greek in order to understand the bible. It does call upon us to consult the wisdom of those who do. Language has many nuances. Some understanding of that is essential to accurate awareness. *Theological perspective and tradition. This is an essential aspect to recognition of biblical wisdom and insight. Knowing how, when, and where a text originated is crucial to understanding. The bible is a powerful resource in life. May we receive it with insight, reflection, and gratitude.

The Contractor will commence the work required by the CONTRACT DOCUMENTS within 10 calendar days after the date of the NOTICE TO PROCEED and Substantial Completion of the project will be obtained within 240 consecutive calendar days of the NOTICE TO PROCEED date unless the period for completion is extended otherwise by the CONTRACT DOCUMENTS. tion to approve the mayor’s signature on Waveland’s interlocal agreement as amended in conjunction with Bay St. Louis.

Waveland attorney Ronnie Artigues said the only revision requested from Bay St. Louis’ attorney Heather Smith, had to do with it not automatically renewing.

Aime-Gamble said, “the only thing that’s in the interlocal agreement is the reciprocity, so they acknowledge our permits, we acknowledge their permits, it has nothing to do with anything else. So, if I get a Waveland permit on my golf cart and I drive to Bay St. Louis, I still have to adhere to their ordinance. I have to follow their rules, their laws, and vice-versa.”

Aime-Gamble said the reason for an interlocal agreement was to have something in writing between the cities.

“If it’s in writing, we’ve made an agreement, it legitimizes it,” she said. “It allows our people from Waveland to travel to Bay St. Louis with confidence to know that there’s an agreement in place in writing that’s been approved that they’re not going to get a ticket because they don’t have a Bay St. Louis permit.”

Ward 3 Alderman suggested they approved the motion contingent on the outcome of Bay St. Louis’ discussion.

Artigues said, “if they don’t approve it, then there’s nothing to submit to the AG’s office anyways.”

LaFontaine seconded the motion.

Trapani shared his thoughts prior to a vote.

“If we pass it tonight, citizens are going to think that they passed it and are going to be thinking it’s okay to go down to the Bay and not get a ticket,” he said. “The other thing is that on the interlocal agreement, item number three, it will go to the attorney general’s office and the attorney general can rule on it and, as we all know it’s a state aid road, federal highway, which do not allow golf carts.”

Trapani said he was referencing Beach Boulevard.

“But the beach is not part of this interlocal agreement and has nothing to do with any of this,” Aime-Gamble said. “The beach is not in our ordinance. What the Attorney General does is, they approve or disprove of the legality of the items that are submitted. They don’t go looking for items outside of what our agreement says, or outside of our ordinance. Beach Boulevard, as everybody knows, is a state funded highway and you’re not supposed to drive a golf cart on it. The county chooses to not enforce that. But, that’s up to the county and the attorney general has nothing to do with an interlocal agreement between Bay St. Louis and Waveland on accepting each other’s permits.”

Trapani said he also had conversations with city attorneys, mayors, board supervisor, board president of the supervisors, and the county administrator.

“They all brought up Beach Boulevard,” he said. “It’s a possibility. I don’t see any reason why we can’t wait until Bay St. Louis adopts this one.”

LaFontaine asked what is the “deal with Beach road currently,” as it’s being used by low-speed vehicles.

“The police departments, the sheriff’s office have elected not to enforce it,” Trapani said.

The board unanimously passed the motion to adopt the interlocal agreement contingent on Bay St. Louis adopting the same.

During the July 2 Bay St. Louis council meeting, councilmen discussed the possibility of an interlocal agreement with Waveland.

Ward 1 Councilman Doug Seal said he’s always been under that impression that once Waveland got a reciprocal agreement, that the city would honor it.

City clerk Michael Reso said there’s been communication between the cities’ police chiefs, mayors and some of the councilmen and aldermen about the matter.

“They wrote this, sent this to us and said ‘hey, would y’all consider this,” he said. “Before we put a lot of time and energy into it, is that something y’all want to consider? Basically, they’re saying if golf carts from Bay St. Louis drive into Waveland and golf carts from Waveland drive into Bay St. Louis, can they basically be reciprocal in using their permits?”

Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre said one of the hold backs is Bay St. Louis required a yearly permit renewal, whereas Waveland required a one-time permit.

“People were going to them to get their permit,” Favre said. “We had businesses registering their golf carts in Waveland, but their business was in Bay St. Louis, just because they had to pay a one-time fee. Now, again, I know of no one that got a ticket driving from Waveland to Bay St. Louis.”

Waveland recently switched to a yearly permitting renewal process for low-speed vehicles.

“We don’t know if this can be done with just a change of ordinance of if it has to go to the attorney general,” Favre said.

Reso said, “If you do an interlocal, you’ve got to go to Jackson with it.”

“My question is, can both cities use amend their existing ordinance to include some language, we’re going to recognize Waveland and they’re going to recognize Bay St. Louis,” Reso said.

Ward 6 Councilman Josh DeSalvo said he believed that Waveland mirrored their ordinance after Bay St. Louis’ so that it would be reciprocal. He added that the matter has also been a back-and-forth discussion amongst residents of both cities for a while.

Council members said that it would be a good idea to have something in writing.

The council took no official action on the matter Tuesday night.

In other action:

Trapani announced that the Oak Park and Gulf Grove apartments were sold on Monday, July 1.

“I met with the new owner and about 20 of his construction team last week,” Trapani said. “And they’re ready to get started. I asked him to please cut the grass and get the fence straight as soon as they can. We should start, hopefully, seeing some construction out there.”

The city also approved a motion to ratify and approve the “Mutual Release and Settlement agreement between the city of Waveland and Oak Park Mississippi Properties, LLC., Gulf Shore Properties, LLC., ADEP, LLC, Waveland Properties, LLC., and Michael L. Brown, individually.”

According to the agreement, “there is a dispute between Oak Park and Gulf Shore, on the one hand, and Waveland regarding, among other matters, the outstanding monetary balances owed, or not owed, on the water accounts pursuant to which Waveland claims that the total amount owed by Oak Park and Gulf Shore under the water accounts is $340,063.38 and Oak Park and Gulf Shores claim that this amount is not fully owed to Waveland, and all other matters relating to the provision of water utilities to apartment buildings during Oak Park’s and Gulf Shore’s ownership of the same.”

The release further states that upon sale, “Gulf Shore and Oak Park shall tender, pay, and deliver unto Waveland the total/aggregate sum of $65,000 as full satisfaction, compromise, and settlement of the dispute and all claims. This amount shall be paid (or caused to be paid by) Gulf Shore and Oak Park to Waveland not later than three business days after the closing of the sale, but simultaneously with such closing as is reasonably practicable by the closing attorney, but in no event later than July, 3, 2024.”

The board approved a motion to purchase cameras to be installed at the lighthouse and veterans memorial in the amount of $10,817.27 as a “need for public safety and deter crimes such as vandalism.” The city will be using Tideland’s funds for the purchase.

The board approved a motion to accept Ward 4 Aldermen Jeremy Clark’s nomination of Tish Ortiz to the Planning and Zoning Commission. Ortiz will replace Matt Touart, who is stepping down from the commission.

The next meeting is scheduled for July 17 at 6:30 p.m.

MEET THEA!

This poor, sweet baby is, sadly, growing up in a shelter environment. She has spent almost half of her life with the shelter, and it is heartbreaking! She is losing her puppyhood day by day to boredom, lack of socialization & playtime, and, most sadly, to the lack of consistent love and affection. Thea is a beautiful, sweet, 4 month old, brindle Black-mouth Cur mix. Those of you not from these parts may not be familiar with this loyal, smart, protective, active breed, so we invite you to come meet Thea . She will not disappoint! She will be a treasured addition to any family, large or small. Please keep in mind that Thea will require additional crate & house training, so please consider your work schedule and social engagements prior to committing to raising a puppy. Please change Thea's life forever by adopting her, and giving her a wonderful life. Come meet this darling puppy during our visiting hours, (Mon, Wed-Fri 10am-3:30pm), or call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule an appointment. Braves shuck Biloxi 8-1 in series finale

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Mississippi Braves whipped Biloxi 8-1 in the series finale in front of Biloxi's largest crowd of the season of 5,728 fans on Wednesday, July 3.

Neither team scored until after the sixth inning as starters Brett Wichrowski of Biloxi and Lucas Braun were locked in a duel on the mound.

For the game, Wichrowski allowed just two hits and fanned four batters while Braun had five strikeouts.

In the seventh inning, the Braves (35-41) jumped out to a 3-0 lead as Biloxi surrendered three bases loaded walks that walked in three runs. Will Childers relieved Nate Peterson after one-third of an inning, fanned two batters, and did not surrender an inherited base runner. The Braves extended their lead to 4-0 in the eighth inning with an RBI single from Bryson Horne.

In the ninth inning, a wild pitch scored Cade Bunnell and Tyler

Tolve smacked a three-run homerun to make the score 8-0.

Biloxi scored in the bottom of the ninth inning on a sacrifice fly by Casey Martin that scored Darrien Miller from third to make the final score 8-1.

Brandon Parker, former West Harrison High School standout, went 1-for-3 in the game with a single, walk, and RBI.

For the series, Parker was 6-for-11 for the Braves at the plate.

The Shuckers are at Chattanooga this week for a six-game series against the Lookouts. The Shuckers return home on Friday, July 19, for a three-game homestand against Montgomery. First pitch on Friday is 6:35 p.m., on Saturday 6:05 p.m., and Sunday at 5:05 p.m.

Shore Thing: It’s more fun at the kids’ table

BY CAPT. SONNY SCHINDLER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

At the majority of big family functions there is a “Kids Table”. The youngest family members all sit together so they can do kids stuff, and like wise for the adults. In the fishing world, this happens too.

Recently, I was on a two boat trip, and luckily I got to sit at the kids table. Four young teenagers were with me, while the adults went on were of our boats.

The plan was for our boat(Adeline, Estelle, Anders, and Finn) to go catch some white trout, and then go “big fish fishing”. The adults were gonna go chase speckled trout for supper.

The plan worked great. We found our white trout over a shell bottom, and the teenage anglers were slinging fish in the boat nearly every drop. We kept the bigger ones to eat, and the smaller ones for big fish bait. A few nice speckled trout even made their way into the fish box. All the while, my crew was asking, “when are we gonna catch something big”?

After we filled the bait tank, and put an impressive amount of white trout and specks in the cooler, the big rods were set out. It was slow going at first, but the conversation kept moral up. The youngsters conversed about school, music, shark week and just about everything in between. Finally one of the big rods doubled over. “Young” Anders, who is well over 6 feet tall went right to work.

The fish never stood a chance. I’m proud to say, what I have seen grown adults take 45 minutes to reel in, he did in 10 minutes. It was a stingray the size of a beach umbrella. After the screams, we let everyone pet the big ray, and safely released it.

The next few fish were likely big sharks. Even with longer wire leaders, we broke off several. With the clock ticking and interest fading, we locked into a good one. The boys and the girls all helped bring the big bulls shark along side the boat. We subdued the beast, and were even able to snap a picture that undoubtedly would later wind up on the teenagers social media pages.

Back at the dock, the adults were all smiles. It looked like they had a wonderful and relaxing trip. My crew was bouncing around the dock, telling stories of how they defeated these giant ocean sea monsters. There were a lot of smiles and excitement amongst the crews.

It was a good day. Everything worked perfectly and everyone got what they were looking for.

I’ll be honest, I like hanging out with adults, but It’s always more fun sitting at the kids table...

Frida Fest this Saturday

BY GEOFF BELCHER
PUBLISHER

People all over the Gulf South are hastily preparing their uni-brows and flower crowns for this Saturday’s Frida Fest in Old Town Bay St. Louis, which just happens to coincide with the Old Town Merchants Association’s Second Saturday Artwalk.

The Mockingbird Café at 110 S. Second St. in Bay St. Louis will host the ninth annual event this Saturday, July 13, from 5-9 p.m.

Frida Kahlo de Rivera was a famed surrealist painter from Mexico who became a feminist icon nearly 40 years after her death.

Frida Fest is the brainchild of former Smith & Lens owners Ann Madden and Sandy Maggio, who founded the celebration in 2015.

The fest quickly took off, with dozens of Frida Kahlo enthusiasts vying to win the “Frida Be You & Me” Frida look-alike contest every year.

largest fundraiser of the year. In addition to the seafood delicacies, carnival rides and live music, the event featured more than 150 arts & crafts booth.

“It’s kind of a special year because it’s our 40th anniversary,” event chairman James “Jimmy” Osbourn said.

On Saturday, the Garden Isle Community Association hosted its annual Fourth of July Boat Parade on the Jourdan River.

Last week, the Jourdan River Estates Community Association hosted its annual “Lighting Up Da Bay” celebration, with a massive fireworks display; then on Saturday, the group hosted its annual “Shrimp Pimp” contest, with participants turning in their best boiled shrimp plates.

“Our ‘Shrimp Pimp’ winners are Clinton and Danielle Dauzat,” the association’s Laurie Williford said. “Our ‘Dessert’ winner is Tere DeRouen Labarre. Her prize-winning dessert was a mandarin orange cake.

“Our special presentation was to the Welsh family, an artist-painted pirogue dedicated in memory of Arlan Welsh. He loved Jourdan River Estates and would sit on his swing looking out at the river. He described this place as ‘Paradise, baby, Paradise.”

The pirogue and artist-created awards were donated by the Alice Moseley Folk Art Museum.

“Thank you to everyone who participated and to David and Eila Wells for opening their home for the contest,” Williford said. Also, a special thanks to the Hancock County Tourism Bureau and the Alice Moseley Folk Art Museum for donating prizes to our golf cart parade.

Municipal clerks earn certification

SPECIAL TO THE ECHO

Katie Stewert, Chanea Cardinale, Caitlyn Bourgeois, and Linda Garcia from the City of Bay St. Louis, graduated from the Certified Municipal Clerk program June 25th in Biloxi during the annual Mississippi Municipal League conference.

Developed and conducted by the Mississippi State University Extension Service, the program provides municipal clerks, tax collectors, and their deputies with additional education and expertise. The three-year program covers 30 topics, including purchasing, personnel management, municipal law, and ethics of openness in government. Participants earn their certification after successfully completing topical assessments.

“Municipal clerks play an essential role in local governments and communities in the state,” said Jason Camp, an instructor with the Extension Center for Government and Community Development. “Their positions require a wide range of expertise in local, state and federal laws.

Graduates of this program are better prepared for the complex nature of their job.”

The program is sponsored by the Center for Government and Community Development and the Mississippi Municipal Clerks and Collectors Association and accredited by the International Institute of Municipal Clerks.

The Extension Center for Government and Community Development has served as the designated state organization for all training accredited by the International Institute of Municipal Clerks since 1973. The institute is a professional, nonprofit association for clerks in the U.S., Canada, and 15 other countries.

“Bay Saint Louis 2045’s purpose is to serve as a guide to future development decisions for the city,” according to the outline of the plan. “The plan is not a regulation or a code, in this sense is not a law. However, its fundamental importance as a highly articulated guide to the formulation of development policies, codes and decisions required to achieve Bay St. Louis’ planning vision.”

The plan projects that an additional 4,000 people are expected to reside in Bay St. Louis over the next 20 years, generating a demand for up to 168,118 square feet of additional retail businesses.

“Similar to growing retail sales ... Bay St. Louis has seen an increase in commercial and residential development that generates demand (population) as well as revenue (permits),” according to the plan. “It also illustrates the overall growth Bay St. Louis has seen over the past decade. Permits steadily increased prior to the Covid pandemic but quickly rebounded in 2021. In 2022, Bay St. Louis showed the highest amount of construction value it has ever seen in commercial and residential construction at $16.8 million and $32.7 million in value respectively.”

The comprehensive plan separates the city into “placetypes,” such as rural lands, natural areas, parks and open space; waterfronts; neighborhoods; commercial areas; and “special areas.”

“Each placetype sets out a range of place characteristics that can be achieved through Bay St. Louis’ development policy, particularly its zoning and development codes,” according to the plan. “Development policies adopted to implement this plan should in all cases align with the planning principles and planning concepts expressed in Bay St. Louis 2045.”

Major planning stations include the Old Town and Depot areas; neighborhoods; the Hwy. 90 corridor; parks and trails; and mobility, with questions about pedestrian and bicycle routes and aesthetic values.

Among the planning team’s values and themes during the process:

- Preserving the downtown area, Depot District, waterfront and historic neighborhoods.

According to Orion leaders, “These places form the core of BSL identity. Their preservation and enhancement is vital for BSL’s future.”

- Expanding mixed-use development beyond downtown. Waterfront neighborhoods along the Jourdan River and Bay present opportunities for complimentary, neighborhood supportive mixed-use development, according to Orion.
- Improving suburban commercial areas, the Hwy., 90 corridor, etc., for improved user experience and development performance through quality site design, building design and pedestrian friendly and attractive streetscapes.
- Balancing community change from hometown to tourist destination, “so vital to preserving community life and culture. Facilitating the supply of full-time housing while balancing demand for short-term rentals and second homes is a vital component.”
- Enhancing contemporary community development standards and codes “to ensure preservation of Bay St. Louis’ historic, small town and coastal atmosphere.”
- Extending and improving mobility and connectivity for pedestrians and cyclists, with emphasis on connecting the city’s recreational assets.
- Protecting and restoring, where needed, the ecological integrity of the Bay’s natural environmental context.
- Increasing parks and recreation facilities and resources for actively programmed spaces, which would include improved existing facilities or the creation of new ones.

Some of the key suggestions from the advisory group that were added to the plan include: Added boat/kayak access; better golf cart parking downtown; better utilization and signage for the Old Town parking garage; improvement of Old Town sidewalks; reduced speed limits; better protection from high tide flooding; more organized sports; an aquatic center; an amphitheater; tennis and pickle ball courts; another dog park; improved comfort stations; more water features at Martin Luther King Park; expanded use of the Senior Center and Community Center; a short-term rental ordinance; creation of a leisure and entertainment district; better parking requirements; restoring the Main Street Association; providing development incentives in the Hwy. 90 corridor, with greenspace and landscaping requirements; removing derelict buildings; attracting higher quality retail businesses; eliminating billboards; and much more.

According to the plan, its “values and themes” include:

Preserving Downtown, the Depot District, waterfront, and historic neighborhoods. These places form the core of BSL identity. Their preservation and enhancement is vital for BSL’s future.

Expanding mixed-use development beyond Downtown. Waterfront neighborhoods along the Jourdan River and Bay present opportunities for complimentary, neighborhood supportive mixed-use development.

Improving suburban commercial areas (Hwy. 90 Corridor etc.) for improved user experience and development performance through quality site design, building design, and pedestrian friendly and attractive streetscapes.

Balancing community change from hometown to tourist destination so vital to preserving community life and culture. Facilitating the supply of full-time housing while balancing demand for short-term rentals and seconds homes is a vital component.

Enhancing contemporary community development standards and codes to ensure preservation of BSL’s historic, small town, and coastal atmosphere. Modernizing development standards and systematic code enforcement are important elements.

Extending and improving mobility and connectivity for pedestrians, cyclists, with emphasis on connecting BLS’s recreational assets. (Beach, Dunbar, Main Street, Washington) (Ward 5 and 6, Jourdan River Waterfront).

Protecting and restoring, where needed, the ecological integrity of BSL’s natural environmental context for both land and Bay. Ecological health underlies all other elements of BSL’s built environment and is vital to a flourishing community.

Increasing parks and recreation facilities and resources for actively programed spaces. Improved existing facilities or creation of new facilities will be required to meet increasing demand.

You can read the entire plan at <https://www.bsl2045.com>.

In other action last week, the council:

- Authorized the mayor to sign a contract between the city and David Rush Construction for the renovation of the Court Street Community Center on top of the city parking garage.

On Tuesday, the city announced it would temporarily close the parking garage to facilitate those improvements.

“The renovation project is slated to commence immediately and is anticipated to be completed by December 31, 2024,” according to a press release issued by City Clerk Michael Reso. “During this period, the Court Street Public Parking Garage will not be inaccessible to the public.”

Alternative public parking options during the closure include:

- Courthouse Parking Lot at 128 Court Street
- Bay St. Louis Parking Lot at 132 Main Street
- On-street parking throughout Old Town Bay St Louis
